Our Family Tree

Grandma’s roots — fill in what you know; the blanks become your next questions.

Great-grandparent

one memory:

Great-grandparent

one memory:

Great-grandparent

one memory:

Great-grandparent

one memory:

Great-grandparent

one memory:

Great-grandparent

one memory:

Great-grandparent

one memory:

Great-grandparent

one memory:

Grandparent

one memory:

Grandparent

one memory:

Grandparent

one memory:

Grandparent

one memory:

Parent

one memory:

Parent

one memory:

Grandma (me)

Grandpa (spouse):

one memory:

Branch Sheets

Print as many as you need — one per family line. Number them so they connect.

Branch ___

This branch continues the family of _____ from sheet _____

Person 1

one memory:

Person 2

one memory:

Person 3

one memory:

Branch ___

This branch continues the family of _____ from sheet _____

Person 1

one memory:

Person 2

one memory:

Person 3

one memory:

Share Your Branch

Cut these apart, hand them to family, and ask them to send their branch back.

For my brother / sister

Your name: _____

How you're related to Grandma: _____

Born (year / place): _____

One memory only you can tell: _____

Please return to _____

For my cousin

Your name: _____

How you're related to Grandma: _____

Born (year / place): _____

One memory only you can tell: _____

Please return to _____

For my child

Your name: _____

How you're related to Grandma: _____

Born (year / place): _____

One memory only you can tell: _____

Please return to _____

For anyone who remembers

Your name: _____

How you're related to Grandma: _____

Born (year / place): _____

One memory only you can tell: _____

Please return to _____